

The Everest Base Camp Trek begins with a thrilling mountain flight to Lukla, followed by a gradual ascent through the Khumbu Valley. The trail passes through vibrant Sherpa villages such as Namche Bazaar, Tengboche, Dingboche, and Lobuche, each offering unique cultural and scenic highlights.

Along the way, trekkers enjoy panoramic views of Everest, Lhotse, Nuptse, Ama Dablam, and other Himalayan giants. Careful acclimatization days are built into the itinerary to ensure a safe and enjoyable journey. Reaching Everest Base Camp is a powerful moment—standing at the base of the world's highest mountain is an unforgettable achievement.
